

Judges: Deliverance in the Dark Ages

10:6–12:7 (page 210)

Intro:

1) God will not be bargained with (10.6–16)

2) But Jephthah can be (10.17–11.11)

3) God freely gives gracious gifts (11.12–28)

4) But Jephthah still tries the bribe (12.29–31)

5) Tragic consequences (11.23–12.7)

6) Unbelievable grace (Hebrews 11.32; p. 1008)

Taking the truth deeper:

- 1) Where or when might we slip into thinking that God can be bargained with, where we do things in order to make him do things for us?
- 2) Why is it so good that God is not like this?
