

John: He Walked Among Us

John 18:1-14 (page 904)

Intro: What's the most glorious thing you've ever seen?

1) Jesus, in complete control, chose to die

2) out of love for the Father

3) in place of his people

Taking the truth deeper:

- Why is it often difficult to feel a great sense of awe when thinking/talking about Jesus' death?
- How is this glimpse of Jesus different from the one we usually have of him on the eve of his death?
- What about these verses makes us want to know Jesus better?
- What about these verses has most helped you see Jesus' death as glorious?
